

If you already are considering doing business in Norway the information below might be helpful to you in choosing Norway as a location. For more basic information about Norwegian industry and trade, business climate, macro conditions etc. please look into our useful Norwegian business links . If you need more information please send an email to mail@niba.no

Financial

- Well capitalised companies
- Strict financial control
- Adherence to commercial terms
- Highly advanced banking system
- Deregulation of business and reduction of bureaucracy
- Capital and earnings can be freely repatriated subject to taxation
- Open attitude towards foreign co-operation and investments

Management

- Open and informal with an accessible top management
- Hands-on at most levels
- Local management is responsible and has authority
- Negotiators have decision making status
- Highly motivated, educated and skilled staff and management
- Positive towards co-operation and investments in joint ventures